

GDP INDIA

Nation's Growth

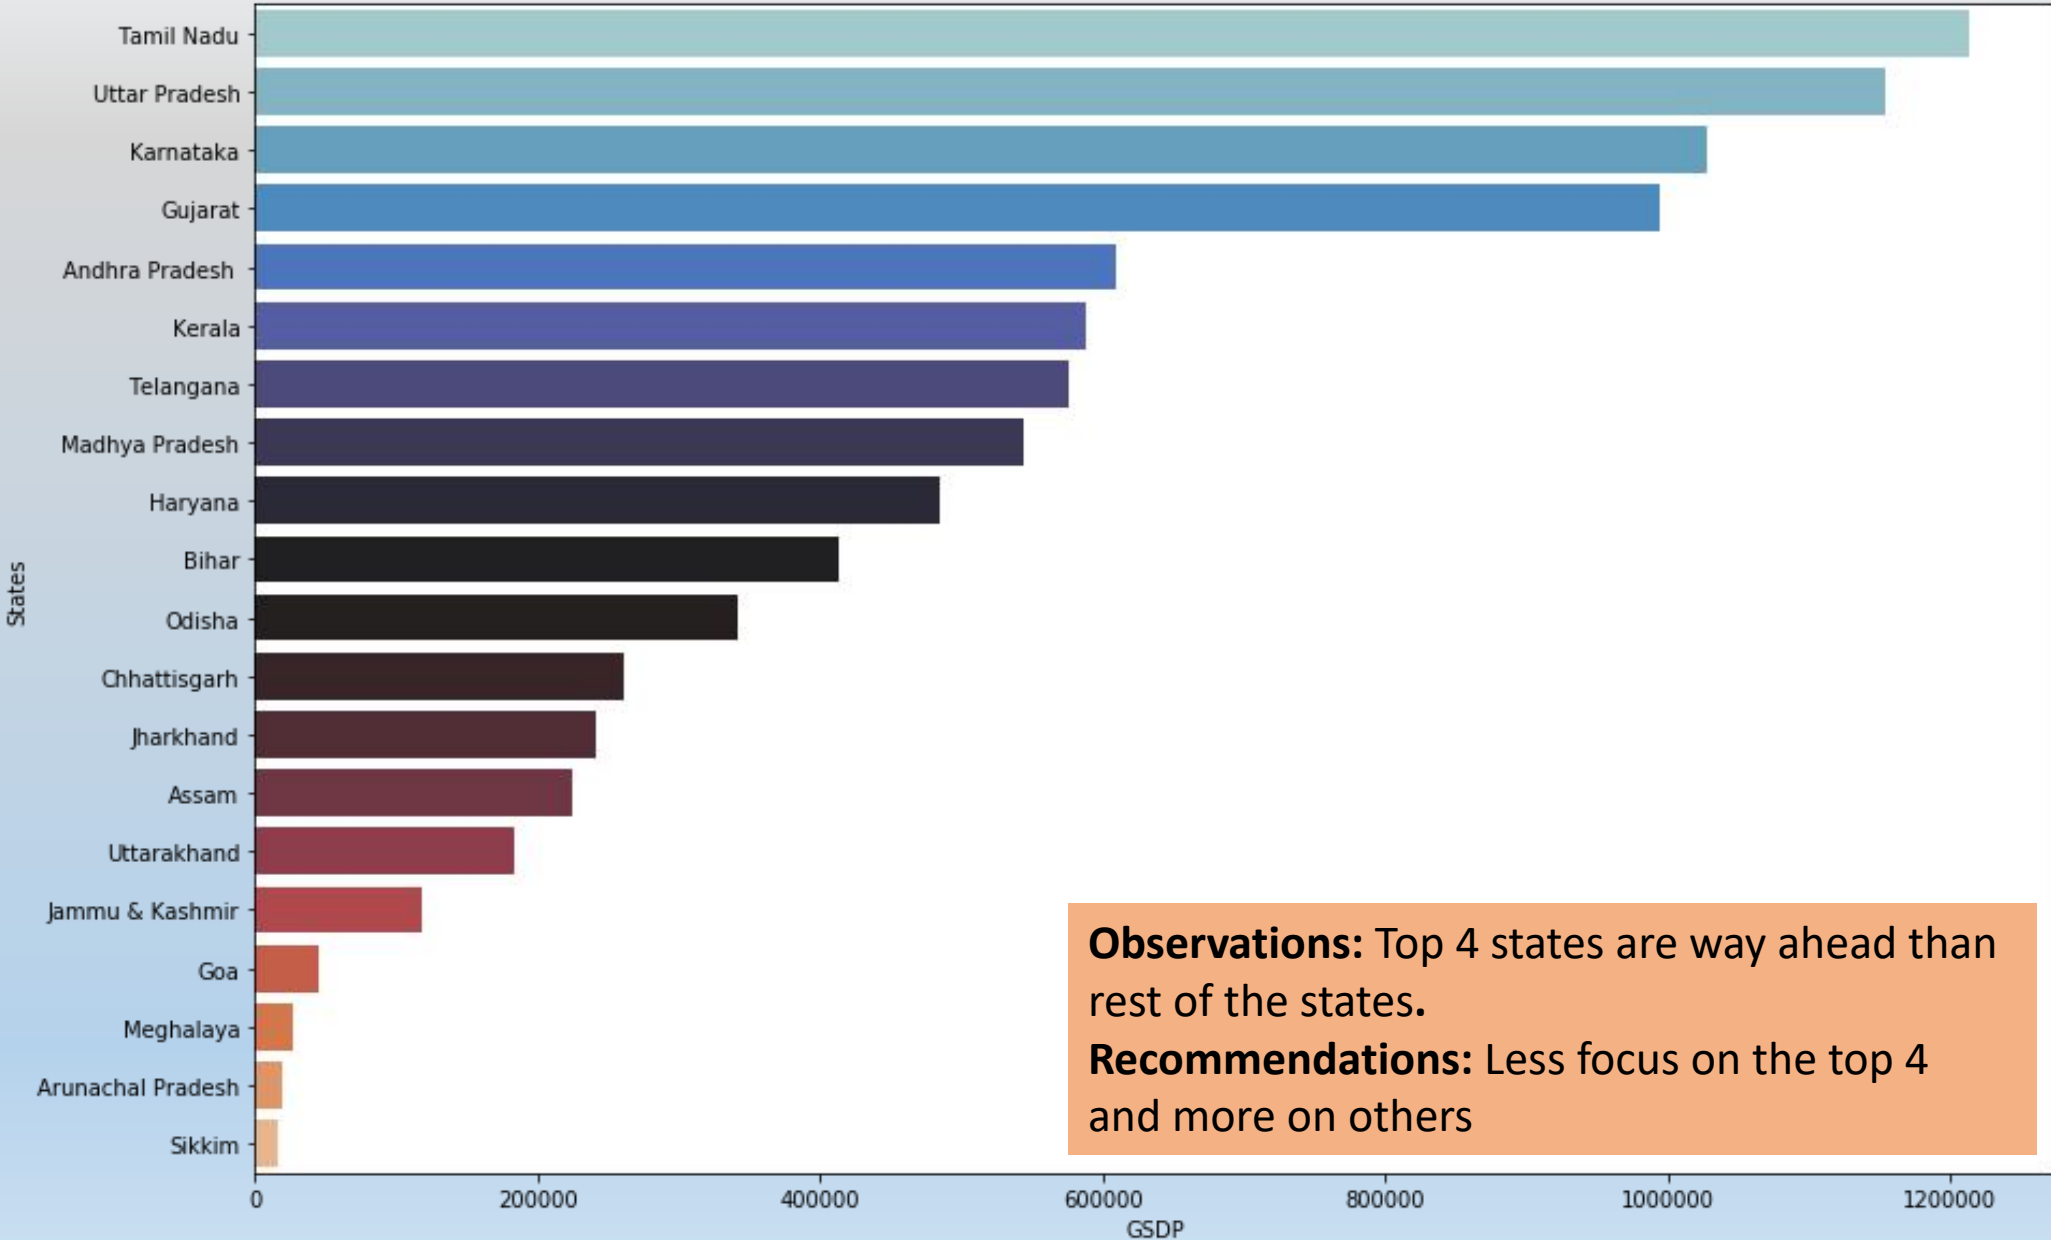

Best and Worst performing States towards INDIA'S GDP

Recommendations: More focus on North-Eastern States

GSDP for All States

GSDP (2015-16)

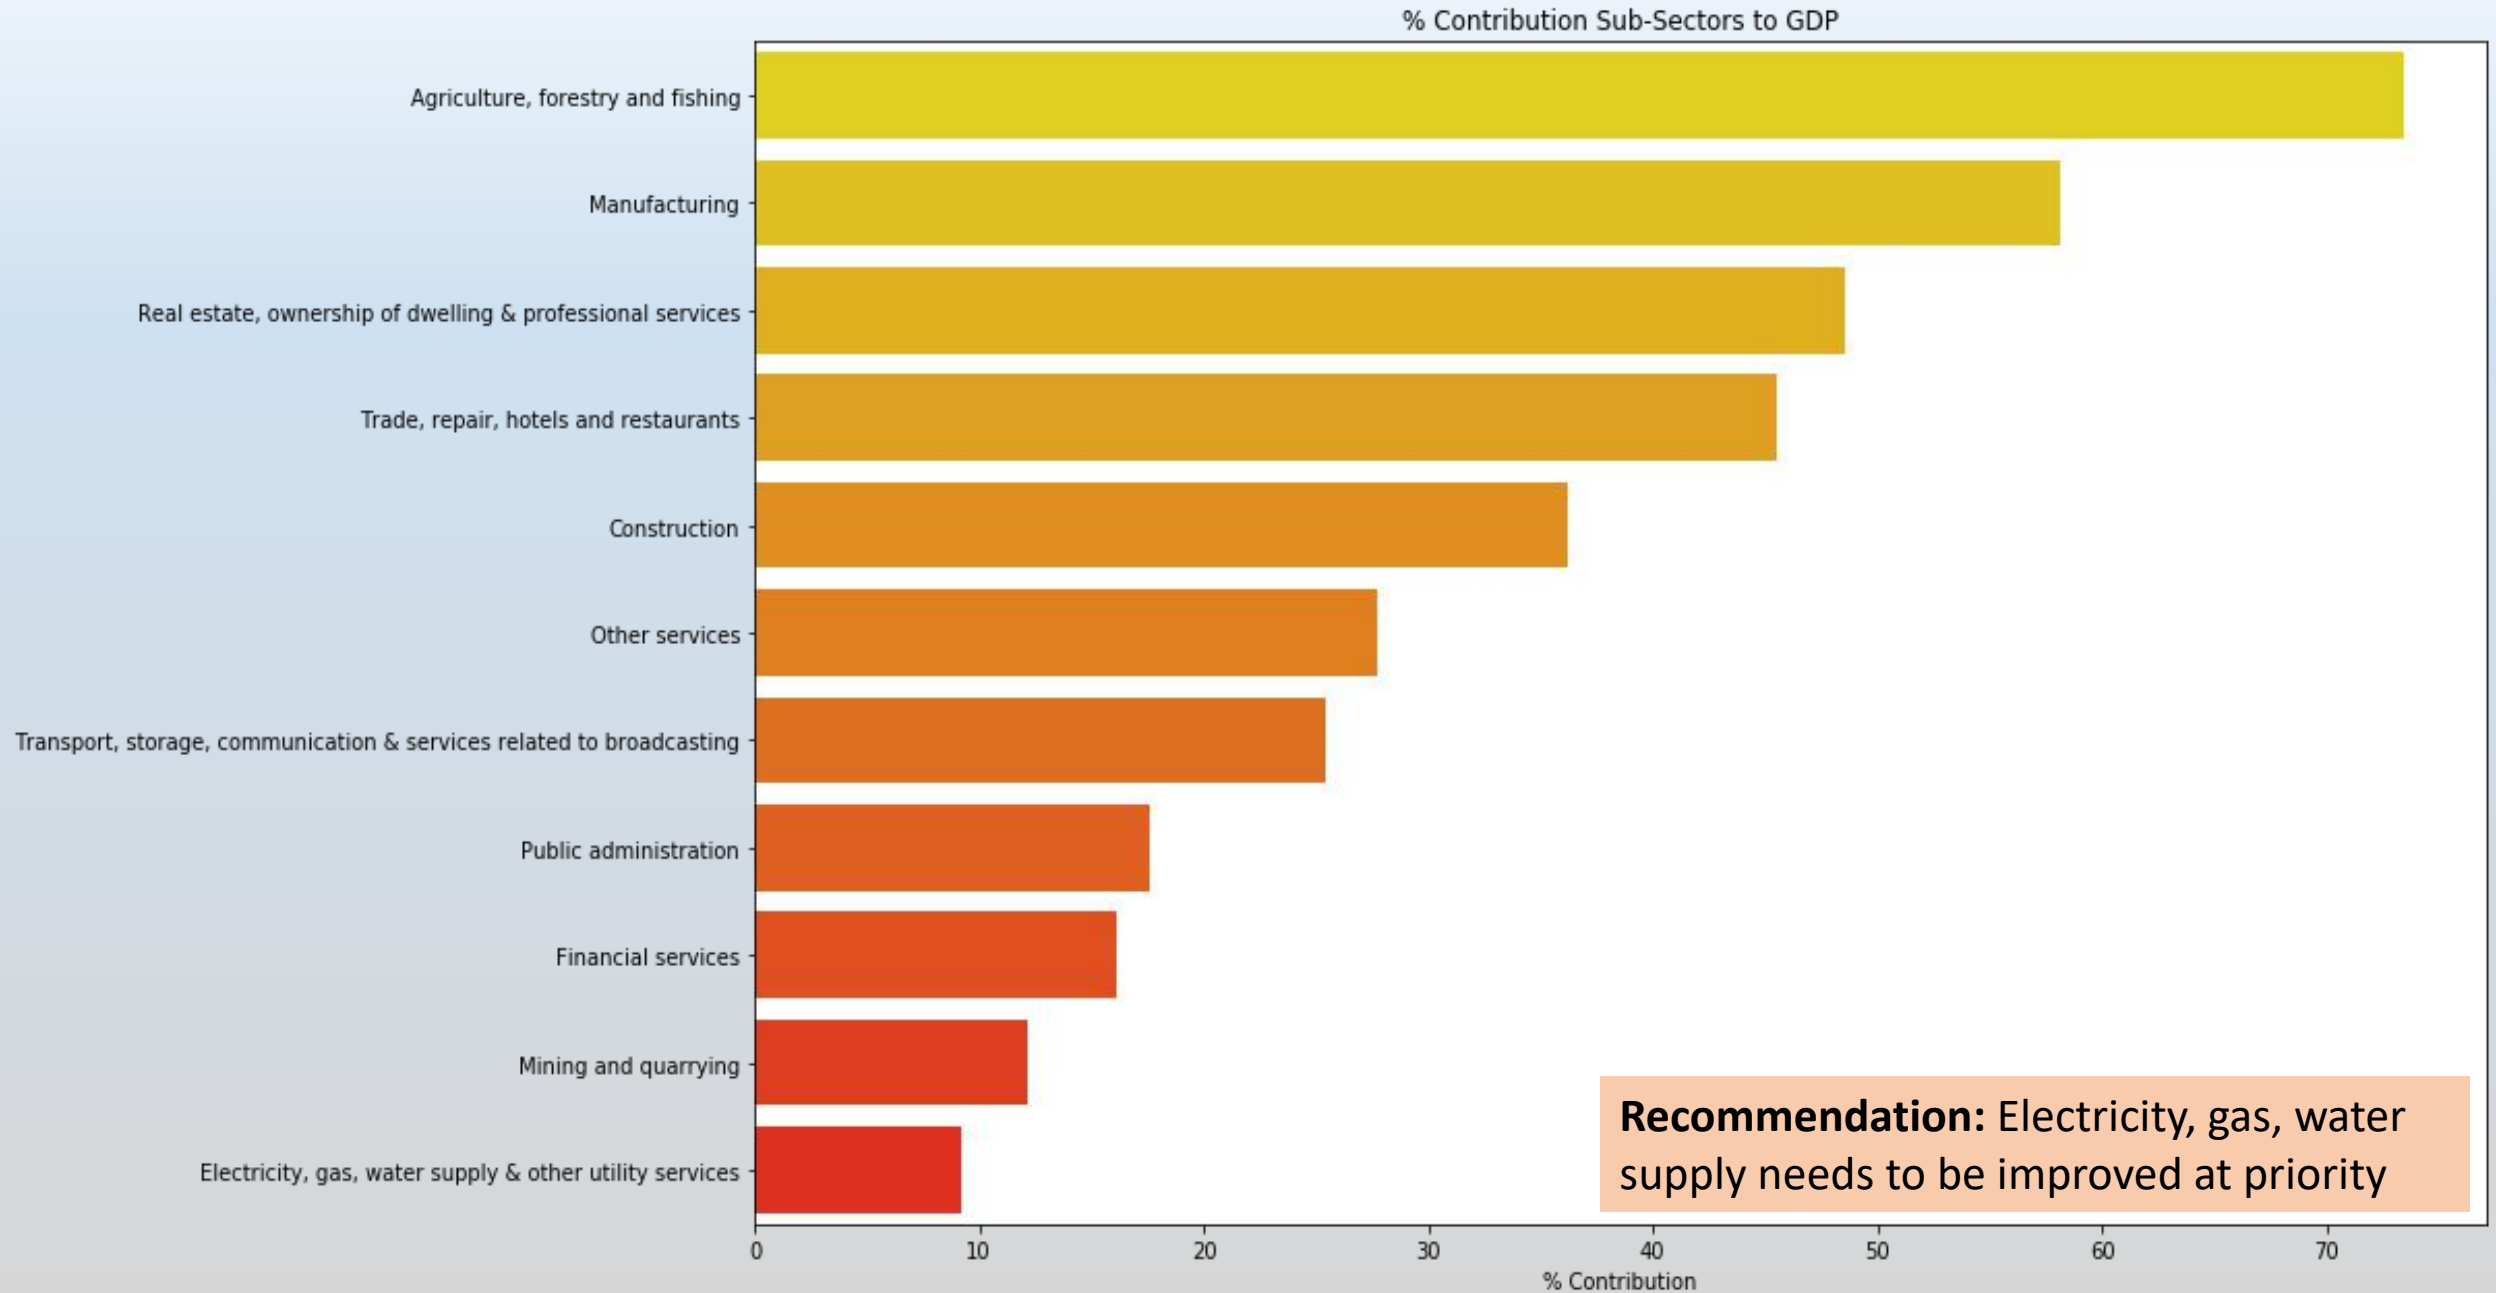

Contribution of Sectors, Taxes and Subsidies to GDP

Recommendation: Focus on Primary Sector (Agriculture)

Sub-Sector Contribution to GDP

Other Insights

- The more the population increases the more people tend to NOT drop out of education.
- The drop out rates increases in all the Education categories (Primary, Secondary, and Tertiary) with respect to the primary sector (Agriculture).
- The drop out rates decreases in all the Education categories (Primary, Secondary, and Tertiary) with respect to the secondary sector (Industry).
- The drop out rates increases ONLY in the Primary Education with respect to the Tertiary Sector(Services)
- The drop out rates increases in all the Education categories (Primary, Secondary, and Tertiary) with respect to the GDP per capita